

CLUB PEJU TERMS & CONDITIONS

By joining Club PEJU, you agree to receive wines on a recurring basis. Your credit card will be billed automatically for the retail price of the wines, less club discount, plus shipping and any applicable taxes and fees.

Adult signature required for delivery. Membership is continuous and may be canceled after receiving your second wine club shipment with a 15-day written notice. Prices are subject to change. If a cancellation request is received after a shipment has been processed, the order will be shipped as your final shipment. Return and reship fees will apply to all orders returned to us. While we hope you will never have cause to cancel your membership, if you do choose to cancel, please contact us by emailing wineclub@peju.com. By signing up online, I certify that I am at least 21 years of age and agree to have this credit card automatically charged for wine club shipments
